About Summer Boost 2025

Summer Boost is a private philanthropic initiative supported by Bloomberg Philanthropies in partnership with co-funders. Originally launched in response to COVID learning loss, the program continues to support charter students in select cities across the nation to accelerate learning and drive academic recovery in English Language Arts and math while providing engaging enrichment activities. The 2025 Summer Boost program served over 39,000 students in 7 cities. This report provides individual site assessment performance data from Summer 2025 for students who completed both the pre- and post- assessments.
